BONAPARTE AND HOHENZOLLERN.-The connection between the Bonapartes and the Hohenzollerns constitutes an historical point of interest at this time. The first consul, with the object of recompencing Murat for his services, bestowed on him the band of his sister, Caroline Bonaparte, Murat being at the time a widower and a father. While yet a lieutenant of chasseurs, he had married, and a daughter had been born to him in January, 1793. From this daughter, Marie Antoinette Murat, born seven years before her father's alliance with the Bonapartes, Prince Leopold is descended. "Murat," says the Pall Mall Gazette, "hard ly ever noticed this child, who, in 1808, when only fifteen years old, married the son of the prince of Hohenzollern, who, taken prisoner at Ulm, became her father's friend.'

How to DRY APPLES .- The following advice, as to the best method of drying apples. is from one of the most experienced and successful fruit growers in the State, and, il carefully tollowed, will always insure a ready market and high prices for this important staple :- "In collecting the fruit for drying. carefully assort it, and select all the sound and perfect apples. Pare and core these carefully, then slice and dry without allowing them to get wet. See that they are not exposed to dust, and as soon as dried put away carefully until ready for market. Follow these directions as near as you can with what apples are left, and when you offer them for sale you will readily realize from two to three cents a pound more than the price of those dried in the ordinary way.'

VAN AMBURGH & CO.'S GOLDEN MENAGERIE

The only full and complete Menagerie worthy of the name in the United States. THE GREAT MORAL EXHIBITION OF THE AGE.

Its interest undivided. Its influence unaloyed by anything incompatible with its WELL-ESTABLISHED CHARACTER. Relying solely upon its merits as a vast ZOOLOGICAL EXHIBITION for success, and appealing to the patronage of an intelligent community, it offers NO CIRCUS PERFORMANCES.

Within its comprehensive catalogue of WILD BEASTS, BIRDS AND REPTILES. comprising nearly

FIVE HUNDRED SPECIMENS of the most rare and curious species known to Naturalists, are many which have, before, NEVER BEEN EXHITITED ON THE CONTINENT.

Among these interesting specialities, which can be seen no where else save in the GREAT GOLDEN MENAGERIE, the management begs to enumerate, first: The enormous, black

In addition to these and many other specialties, the collection contains a vast number of ties, the collection contains a vast number of cellville, Snickersville, Berryville and Vinother animals too numerous for even mention chester; also, with Reamer's Line of Conchester, here, and for which we refer the reader to our small bills and descriptive sheets. The appointments and outfit of the GREAT GOLDEN MENAGERIE are on a scale of unparalleled extent and ele-gance, which has never before been attempted, while the magnificent gratuitous pageant is beyond conception, brilliant and magnificent.— Such a street display of irridescent splendor has never before been seen, and has been per-fected at a cost of nearly half a million of dollars. Among the noticeable features of this Royal street parade, will be found the great suriferous Chariot of Pactolus, with its team of ten Normandy horses, the most massive vehicular construction ever drawn on wheels, containing KOPP'S GREAT GOLDEN OPERA BAND. Herds of Elephants, Camels, Ponies Llamas and other led animals, followed by the quantities to suit purchasers, can always be obtained from the ice carts, or at the ice depot on the Strand, between King and Prince streets, of ie 18-tf
